And here we are, another year almost finished!

What will you get for the holidays? What will you give? Is it something you don't need or is it something you really would like? Are you giving something needed or another gift that will become a re-gift?

Being a grandparent is tough as your grandkids get older. What used to be something they couldn't live without, becomes, "uh, thanks, but I really wanted cash!" How do we give the right gift?

Remember when we were kids and wanted something so bad and then you got the generic brand of what you wanted?! It was so disappointing, but we would smile and say thank you.

Now gift giving is so different. We have to beg our grandkids to give us a list or suffer the consequences of getting something they don't want. Giving cash seems so impersonal but now I understand why I got cash in that Christmas card instead of a gift!

Have things changed because the generational traditions changed or has the progression of society made the changes for us? I remember my parents saying they were happy getting an orange and pair of socks in their stocking. Any kid today would be completely insulted to get that in their stocking.

Teaching children to appreciate giving their time or donating toys to other children less fortunate, is a great way to break that thinking of "it's all about me."

Here in our community we have someone who donates new or gently used stuffed animals to children in migrant camps. We also have a food drive for needy families so, contact the Arroyo Association. Help the kids in your life to learn about being charitable and set the example!

Holiday Greetings and love, Lorraine

Keeping YOU Informed

In the last few weeks the HOA has sent information regarding our park to residents keeping you informed of things happening in the community. If you would like to receive emails from the HOA, website updates or information about Arroyo Association events, please contact me at deanzanews@gmail.com. Your information WILL NOT BE SHARED with anyone outside the park. This is the best way for you to be informed of any changes, concerns, emergency situations or events. You can also request a copy of the resident list from me. Your well-being and peace of mind is important to all of us.

Contact Information for Residents Sharing Property Line with Natural Bridges SP

If you live along the perimeter of the park and are concerned the natural brush/trees are creating a possible fire threat to your home, contact the lead maintenance supervisor at the Wilder Ranch office.

Michael is the contact person and can be reached at 831-423-9709.

Reporting Abandoned or Oversized RV's to City Council

Many residents are becoming concerned about the growing number of RV dwellers on Delaware Avenue. There are complaints of oil, sewage, chemicals and human waste being poured into the storm drains which go into the ocean. This is a major HEALTH HAZARD! Please contact the Santa Cruz City Council to voice your concerns. Adding pictures of these violations will help to identify how important it is to monitor and remove those who do not abide by the law. You can make a difference! A link is also on the website under HOA Updates tab. Scroll to bottom of page and click.

Celebrations, Festivals for This Festive, Celebratory Season

Recommendations by Christie Cochrell

Christian Roy, Traditional Festivals: A Multicultural Encyclopedia

"This two volume encyclopedia travels around the world and across the centuries to uncover an often unexpected richness of meaning in some of the major sacred festivals of the world's religions, the hallowed calendars of ancient civilizations, and the seasonal celebrations of tribal cultures. Its 150+ entries look at the content and context of these festivals from a number of perspectives. Readers will get a vivid sense of what each festival means to the people celebrating it; how each captures its culture's beliefs, hopes and fears, founding myths, and redemptive visions."

Claire Grace, A Year Full of Celebrations and Festivals: Over 90 fun and fabulous festivals from around the world (especially for kids)

"With fact-filled text accompanied by beautifully bright illustrations from the wonderfully talented Chris Corr, prepare yourself for a journey as we travel around the world celebrating and uncovering a visual feast of culture. Give thanks and tuck into a delicious meal with friends and family at Thanksgiving, get caught up in a messy tomato fight in Spain at La Tomatina, add a splash of color to your day at the Holi festival of colors, and celebrate the life and achievements of Martin Luther King Jr. on his day."

Ann DrUITT, Christine Fynes-Clinton, and Marije Rowling, All Year Round: Christian Calendar of Celebrations (Festivals and the Seasons) (especially for kids)

"Brimming with things to make; activities, stories, poems and songs to share with your family. It is full of well-illustrated ideas for fun and celebration: from Candlemas to Christmas and Midsummer's day to the Winter solstice. Observing the round of festivals is an enjoyable way to bring rhythm into children's lives and provide a series of meaningful landmarks to look forward to."

Hayyim Schauss, The Jewish Festivals: A Guide to Their History and Observance

"Long considered a classic, The Jewish Festivals provides a rich and charming account of the origins, development, and symbolism of the Jewish holidays, and of the diverse rituals, prayers, ceremonial objects, and special foods that have been used throughout history and around the world to celebrate them. Written with passion and warmth, this book will infuse your own experience of the holidays with extra meaning and delight."

Elizabeth Carmichael and Chloë Sayer, The Skeleton at the Feast: The Day of the Dead in Mexico

"In this unique work, lavishly illustrated with color and black-and-white photographs, the authors explore both the historic origins of this holiday and its colorful present-day celebrations in Mexico and the United States. Interviews with Mexican artists and crafters who provide goods for the festival—from personalized sugar skulls to gigantic papier-mâché skeletons—offer a fascinating glimpse into traditional and contemporary attitudes toward death and the dead."

Judith Hoffman Corwin, Harvest Festivals Around the World (especially for kids)

"This book provides a brief look at ancient and contemporary celebrations and presents a relatively simple activity for each of them. Corwin includes 15 festivals of the Hopi, French Canadians, Incas, English, Egyptians, Israelis, Nigerians, Japanese, Chinese, and East Indians. She gives a bit of background information followed by a page or two detailing a craft (Hopi Corn Dance dolls, African harvest mask, a miniature succah) or baking project (apple cake, Swiss onion soup, Chinese mooncakes)."

Anne Bianchi, Italian Festival Food: Recipes and Traditions from Italy's Regional Country Food Fairs

"Italian food writer and cooking teacher Anne Bianchi has visited Italy's 18 regions and returned with over 200 festival recipes. These are not only uniquely good, but illuminate vital culinary traditions. Lovers of authentic Italian cooking and food culture will find Italian Festival Food a treasure." "Bianchi's words are as delicious and simple as the food they celebrate, and clearly describe the exquisite detail so much a part of traditional food in all Italian towns. This book is a treasure for both the novice and the professional cook!" —Mario Batali

Katherine Burton and Helmut Ripperger, Feast Day Cookbook: The Traditional Catholic Feast Day Dishes of Many Lands

"Few know that the origin of the veal cutlet is attributed to St. Ambrose, who thus prepared the meat he gave to the poor; that the favorite sweetmeat of St. Francis of Assisi was Frangipane; or that in Italy a cake called 'Sphinx' is traditionally served on St. Joseph's Day. We learn the forgotten origin of many well-known dishes, and the family is provided with numerous recipes to restore these wonderful traditional customs."

The Garlic Lovers' Cookbook (Gilroy Garlic Festival)

"Since 1978, the Gilroy Garlic Festival has attracted both professional and amateur cooks, who test their culinary prowess in the Great Garlic Cook-Off Contest. The fruits (or rather, bulbs) of their labors pack the pages of this revised first volume of the cookbook, with a dizzying mélange of Mediterranean, Middle Eastern, Asian, and all-American flavors. This breathtaking collection of more than 200 recipes is as fresh and zesty as ever."

Oliver Keens, Festivals: A Music Lover's Guide to the Festivals You Need to Know

"Highlighting festival giants and jazz classics, pop powerhouses and indie favourites to dance scene darlings and punk rock adventures, we travel from Woodstock, Glastonbury, Coachella and Roskilde to Fuji Rock, Tomorrowland, Burning Man, and Afro Punk. Here, the unique experience of a music festival is evocatively captured and an overview of the rise of the wonderful world of festival culture as we know it today revealed."

Barbara Traub, Desert to Dream: A Dozen Years of Burning Man Photography

"This trailblazing photo collection features an introduction by award-winning filmmaker Les Blank, foreword and afterword by Burning Man founder Larry Harvey, epilogue by beat poet Lawrence Ferlinghetti, and a contribution by Star Trek's Mr. Spock, Leonard Nimoy. More than 150 sensational color and black and white photographs bring to life an incredible event that now attracts 80,000 people every year."

Ellis Peters, Black Is the Colour of My True Love's Heart (mystery)

"Singers and musicians are gathered for a course in folk music that will occupy a weekend in the fantastic country mansion called Follymead. Most come only to sing or to listen, but one or two have non-musical scores to settle. When brilliantly talented Liri Palmer sings 'Black, black, black is the color of my true-love's heart!' she clearly has a message for someone in the audience. Passions run high, and there is murder brewing at Follymead."

Penny Pike, A Food Festival mystery series (Death of a Bad Apple, Death of a Chocolate Cheater, Death of a Crabby Cook)

"This mystery series, set in California, features restaurant reviewer Darcy Burnett who gets served a pink slip from the San Francisco Chronicle. Now she needs to come up with an alternative recipe for success quickly. Her feisty aunt Abby owns a tricked-out school bus, which she's converted into a hip and happening food truck, and Darcy comes aboard as a part-timer while she develops a cookbook project based on recipes from food fests in the Bay Area."

Louise Penny, Bury Your Dead (mystery)

"Chief Inspector Armand Gamache is on break from duty in Three Pines to attend the famed Winter Carnival up north. He has arrived in this beautiful, freezing city not to join the revels but to recover from an investigation gone hauntingly wrong. Still, violent death is inescapable—even here, in the apparent sanctuary of the Literary and Historical Society, where one obsessive academic's quest for answers will lead Gamache down a dark path."

David Hewson, Carnival for the Dead (A Venetian Mystery)

"Teresa Lupo's Aunt Sophia vanishes abruptly on the eve of Carnival, and Teresa can only solve the puzzle of her disappearance by immersing herself in the art and history of Venice and the fantastic spectacle that is Carnival."

De Anza Home Owners Association (HOA)

What is it?

The HOA is a group of volunteer residents who represent the community to park management. They address and help to resolve issues and concerns within the park.

What are the annual dues?

The current dues are $10.00 per year, per household.

Dues are required to be paid to participate in important votes and be notified for special meetings.

How are your dues used?

- ◆ Website support
- ◆ Robo-calls
- ◆ GSMOL expenses to attend annual GSMOL conference
- ◆ Support a legal fund
- ◆ Supplies

When and who should I pay?

HOA fiscal year is January 1 through December 31 so you should pay at the January HOA meeting. Dues need to be paid before the annual election in order to be a voting member. You can contact the HOA Treasurer for further information.

HERE ARE SOME EXAMPLES OF HOW THE HOA HAS RECENTLY HELPED THE COMMUNITY

1. Coastal Commission did walk through and per Landscape Rehabilitation Plan, park is in compliance.
Recirculating pump broken = new pump has been ordered
2. Gym carpet has been replaced with anti fungal/mold flooring
3. Replaced broken irrigation line in pool area by spa. Repaired valve leak in pool area by spa.
4. An Operations Corner in the weekly management email that gives information regarding office hours and information regarding what to do in an emergency and the process on who to contact .

Outstanding Concerns:

1. Health and Safety Concerns Regarding Safe Access to all residents in the park to all amenities that residents pay to use.

Please be aware there are some circumstances which residents prefer to be private so these are examples of issues that can be shared. A big thanks to Margaret Gannon, Director of Park Concerns for doing an exceptional job!

Call to Order

Eugene Markowitz called the meeting to order at 10:02 a.m. and 11:05 a.m. There was some confusion as to correct time so meeting was stopped and continued at 11 a.m. The members recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

Roll Call

The President took roll call of the Board Members. Those HOA Officers and Directors present were: Eugene Markowitz, Don Payne, Margaret Gannon, Gary Whitten, Jerry Zanzinger & Lorraine Smith. Candi Walker was absent.

Vice President and Secretary Positions are not chaired. 16 members of the HOA were present at the meeting.

President's Report

Eugene informed the community of the Food Waste Program which is now available in the park. The receptacle is located in the main dumpster area between spaces 8 & 9. He stated there should be available buckets in the office for household use.

Rental assistance information can be obtained from the office. Don Payne stated some new residents may not know how things work and should contact them. Margaret Gannon stated it was sent with 90 day rent increase letter in September.

Eugene stated having the emails of residents is important to share this type of information. He encouraged neighbors to let others know of the importance of keeping the community informed about such things as garbage strike, front office being on vacation and other miscellaneous things.

Treasurer's Report

Jerry Zanzinger stated there is $947.70 in general account. $600 to IRS has decreased it from approximately $1500. He gave updated report on how the paper copy was not accepted so he spent time to do it on-line. Status is currently pending and may take up to 6 months before he receives an answer. JAMS account is $19,045.23. ELS contributes $1000/year to account.

Policies and Procedures

No new information

Emergency Procedures

Gary suggested that GoBags be placed in walkers or backpacks.

Communications

Lorraine Smith commented that she and John Kettles will be co-webmasters of the community website. Resident lists will now be sent in numerical and alphabetical order.

Park Concerns

Margaret Gannon stated ADA compliance is still being addressed for residents who do not have safe access to amenities due to pool/gym area not being ADA compliant. There is no Handicap Parking by the gym. Also safe exiting of the clubhouse for residents with disabilities. Alfred Gonzales will be addressing the issue. She also discussed problems with overgrowth along the perimeter of Natural Bridges State Park. Contact information for this problem will be in the December Bulletin.

Dave Allenbaugh stated the drain in the car wash area is not draining properly. Front office will be contacted.

Gary Whitten voiced concern about the growing number of coyotes in the area and how to deal with the growing population.

Jim Carraher gave information about how the increasing RV populace is trying to be dealt with by the city. Citations are given at midnight, but only with vehicles that have license plates or registration. They have to be parked over 3 days before reporting. He has information on who to send concerns to on the city council. It will be put on the website and Bulletin.

Coastal Commission information is available on the website. Pictures of the hazards have been submitted to the city council, but nothing has been done. Dave Allenbaugh suggested we think outside the box and try to get the press involved. He suggested a protest.

Dave Allenbaugh announced that he would like to have an AED present in the park. He stated Federal law protects people from liability. He asked ELS if we could have one that is under locked condition in the clubhouse area. Pricing was discussed and he asked for donations from HOA and Arroyo Association. Price is approximately $800 - $1600. Options are for re-furbished and new units. Also discussed were CPR class with AED instruction.

Jean Marie brought up utility bills and the discrepancies of some bills. Eugene commented that not all the meters are read at the same time, which puts the resident into a higher tier. A credit is supposed to be applied if this happens. Marguerite and Dan stated they were overcharged and would like a refund. They were advised to contact Shannon who is the interim manager.

The validity of the meter readers was discussed. Plus the days are based on a range.

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned by Eugene Markowitz at 12:15 p.m.

Submitted,
Lorraine Smith, Director of Communications

The Gift of Laughter

—contributed by Dave Allenbaugh

Saw a store that has a sign that reads, "We treat you like family!"

Yup, NOT going in there.

I'm so glad I was young and stupid BEFORE there were camera phones.

The biggest lie I tell myself is "I don't need to write that down, I'll remember it."

I don't know how to use TikTok, but I can write in cursive, do long division and tell time on clocks with hands... so there's that.

I BURN ABOUT 2000 CALORIES EVERY TIME I PUT ON FITTED SHEETS BY MYSELF.

My super power is holding onto junk for years and throwing it away a week before I need it.

Anyone remember the good ol' days, before Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter? When you had to take a photo of your dinner, then get the film developed, then go around to all your friends' houses to show them the picture of your dinner? No? Me neither. Stop it.

GONNA ASK MY MOM IF THAT OFFER TO SLAP ME INTO NEXT YEAR IS STILL ON THE TABLE

I choked on a carrot this afternoon and all I could think was "I bet a donut wouldn't have done this to me."

I don't let my age define me, but the side effects are getting harder to ignore
